DANA is offering a very limited number of spaces on a six day tour encompassing Chinese log and process wood related sites.

15–20 March 2015

Hosted by DANA, this six day Tour is offered to a limited number of participants and will include guided visits to:

- The cities of Shanghai, Beijing, Tianjin, Taicang, Changshu, Jing Jiang;
- Four major log and lumber import ports;
- Sawmills;
- Add value wood processing mills;
- Veneer and plywood mills;
- Furniture factories;
- Large construction site;
- Sightseeing opportunities in Beijing and Shanghai.

Your DANA Host: Director, Dennis Neilson

Dennis Neilson first visited Chinese forests and wood processing plants in 1985, and was responsible for the development of the Chinese log export trade from Fletcher Forests in New Zealand in the late 1980s.

Since then Dennis has provided independent advice to a number of private clients on Chinese wood market issues and has visited China more than 20 times; including twice in 2013 to visit several log and lumber import ports and wood processing/add value reprocessing mills; and three further visits during 2014.
